Accommodations

Upon boarding this 53C Marlow Explorer, you will be amazed by the volume of space available to you. The cockpit is spacious due to the 18'2" beam, which provides wide, easy to navigate side decks to let you move freely from stem to stern. Silver Lining has a day head in the cockpit, and a bench seat aft that gives you a great spot to relax and enjoy your cruise. Beneath the aft seating is the head for the crew cabin below, which is accessed through a flush teak hatch in the cockpit. Descending the stairs to the crew cabin reveals single berths both port and starboard. Aft lies the head with Sealand VacuFlush toilet, sink and hand shower with Grohe fixtures. As with all Marlow Yachts, the fixtures are the best available, whether found in the main salon, crew cabin or engine room. Forward of the crew cabin through a watertight door is the well laid out engine room with 6'2" headroom, housing all the appointments that mark the Marlow machinery spaces as the standard of the industry. Returning to her lovely teak covered deck allows entry to the spacious salon through two unique doors that open to allow large furnishings, appliances and other shipboard needs without disassembly. In mild weather the doors may be left fully open for a grand view aft and fresh air circulation throughout the salon. Entering the salon, the high gloss teak and holly floors stunning in every detail, beautifully crafted from the same teak log used throughout the yacht. This is a Marlow specification for all yachts built today and tomorrow. Marlow Yachts are crafted with intense pride, great detail and forward thinking at every instance.

There is a full width pass-thru from the salon to the galley, along with fine teak cabinetry and a well designed glass cabinet in the wetbar area. The countertop in the wetbar, as in the galley, is Raw Silk, which is a peach, white, grey and black swirl.

- Salon Added Extras:
- Custom Hi-Lo teak table
- Wine cooler
- U-Line refrigerator/icemaker
- Teak wood blinds
- Bose Home Theater
- Crew Quarters

Galley

There is a full width pass-thru from the salon to the galley, allowing expansive views aft of the yacht for docking and cruising comfort. Abundant perfectly fitted and finished storage assures plenty of places for gourmet food or cocktail snacks. The U-shaped galley has all the amenities found in fine kitchens in elegant homes, with a large dinette seating 5-6. Located and appointed similar to kitchens that have become social centers in fine homes, entertaining involves all the guests while the owner or captain handle the navigating duties from a plush Stidd helm chair centrally located. The luxurious helm chair is adjustable in height, and swivels to become another dining spot at the large table and dinette so the captain can enjoy a meal with the guests that are aboard. The pilothouse blends perfectly with the galley and dining area forming a hub of entertainment while you are underway, dockside or at anchor. With the complete accessory display panel above the helm, it makes it easy to monitor the yachts systems without having to leave your seat. Forward and starboard in the pilothouse are the teak steps with clear nonskid and recessed handrail to help guide you down to the staterooms. At the bottom of the steps lies the guest stateroom.

Additional Salesperson's Remarks

This yacht has many deluxe features that are virtually impossible to find on a yacht of this size range. The crew cabin with private head and shower, a feature seldom or never found in this category yacht.

The original owner of this yacht had limited mobility. To address this, Marlow Yachts placed extra handholds throughout the vessel and spaced all steps a little closer together.
