Description

Ever since the highly anticipated 2001 debut of Marlow Explorers' hull #1 to the yachting world, David Marlow and the Marlow Yachts team have been setting and maintaining the standard for yachts in its class. Marlow Yachts are a perfect example of innovation with advanced methods of composite construction and highly customizable layouts and interiors. TIMBER'S TOY is no exception as she is one of only a few limited-edition Command Bridge 49E Marlow Explorers ever built! She is the fastest 49E in the fleet powered by twin 1000HP 12.9L Caterpillar engines and dually stabilized by a SK16 SeaKeeper AND Naiad fins. This one-of-a-kind floating masterpiece has a professionally designed contemporary interior while keeping the classic exterior lines of the Marlow Yachts bloodline. TIMBER'S TOY was built for a cruising couple that understands the benefits and comforts of the Marlow Explorer. In addition to the well-equipped engine room and highly customized interior she was built with a substantial navigation package that includes two large Garmin touch screens, autopilot, radar, AIS, and Yacht Controller. She is turn-key, ready to cruise to your next destination.

Engine / Mechanical

The engine room has standing headroom and has been designed to allow easy access to all equipment. Placing fuel tanks forward of the engine room allows the full beam to be used for upgraded equipment placement. Attention to detail enables key maintenance access making it an owner-operator friendly vessel. The cross plumbed twin sea chests provide all sea water to the engine room, a much-improved safety factor over most boats built with ubiquitous inlets wherever it suits the builder with little to no regard to functional serviceability. Two 17kW Onan generators in custom sound boxes and mounted aft port side in the engine room provide redundant electrical power at sea (each generator will independently carry the entire vessel's electrical load). The SK16 SeaKeeper (port aft) and the Naiad stabilizer hydraulic systems are also found here in the engine room. The fuel tanks are located at the vessel's center of gravity which translates into no requirement of fuel management for trim or ballast, allowing all supply and return valves to remain open unless equipment isolation is desired. Fuel levels can be checked via sight tubes mounted up against the fuel tank on the forward part of the engine room where it is easily accessed and viewed.

A separate pump room is located below the forward berthing compartment with access from the companionway. This space contains the fresh water and drinking water filters and pumps, redundant water pump and water distribution manifold.
